Travel & Expense Policy

Kestrel Ridge Logistics - fictional company for demonstration purposes

1. Purpose

This policy defines how business travel is requested, booked and reimbursed. It applies to every employee who travels on behalf of Kestrel Ridge Logistics.

2. Trip approval

All trips must be requested in TravelDesk at least 10 business days before departure. Domestic trips are approved by the direct manager.

International trips additionally require approval from the area director. Trips booked without approval are not reimbursed.

3. Flights

Economy class is mandatory for flights shorter than 6 hours. Premium economy is allowed for flights of 6 hours or more.

Business class is only allowed for vice presidents on flights longer than 10 hours.

4. Hotels

The nightly hotel cap is USD 180 in the United States and Europe and USD 120 in other Latin American countries.

In Colombia the cap is COP 350,000 per night in Bogota and Medellin and COP 280,000 per night in other cities. Bookings above the cap need written justification.

5. Meals and per diem

The meal per diem is USD 65 per day for international trips and COP 140,000 per day for domestic trips. Alcoholic drinks are never reimbursable.

Client entertainment above USD 200 per event requires pre-approval from the area director.

6. Ground transportation

Taxis and ride-hailing services are allowed. Employees who use their own car are reimbursed COP 1,100 per kilometre, plus tolls and parking.

7. Expense reports and reimbursement

Expense reports must be submitted in TravelDesk within 15 calendar days after the trip ends. Approved reports are paid in the next payroll cycle.

Receipts are required for any expense above USD 25 or COP 100,000. A lost receipt form may be used at most 2 times per year.

8. Corporate card

Employees who travel more than 4 times per year may request a corporate card. Personal expenses on the corporate card must be repaid within 30 days.
